To Whom it may concern,

I had the pleasure of casting Andrea as the villain in my movie, and she has proven to be one of the most valuable people involved. She works to truly embody her characters to give an authentic, honest performance. Playing the villain is not an easy task, but Andrea did it effortlessly. She came to set every day prepared and ready to deliver. We filmed this movie during the pandemic which presented itself many different obstacles. Andrea didn't let that affect or deter her professionalism or performance.

Andrea is an excellent actress, and I have mentioned to her many times that I see her having a similar projected career as other big-name actors I have cast in my films. She plays the villain well, but I know she has the ability and talent play a variety of other strong characters.

Aside from her acting prowess, Andrea is a joy to work with. She comes to set with a wonderful, positive energy. She treats everyone on set with respect and care. She is on time, knows her lines, and is able to take direction extremely well. She is an excellent communicator and has been incredibly accommodating to get the film complete. She's educated, loyal, self-motivated, driven, and so much more. I highly recommend working with Andrea!
